Ohio State University Departments of Linguistics and Psychology

Seeking individuals with Williams syndrome for an Eyetracking Study

Participants with Williams syndrome must be aged 6 to 40 yrs. They will play several computer games that measure language comprehension and production. During these games, their eye movements will be tracked. Participants will also find the location of a star on the computer screen. Participants will be compensated $40.

Would you like to participate?
Please contact Marilee Martens, Ph.D.
Phone: 740-366-9415
Email: martens.22@osu.edu