What is TOPS?

The TOPS Program at The Ohio State University Nisonger Center offers individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities a unique opportunity to engage in Ohio State academic coursework and work experiences. We offer a 2-year portfolio or 4-year certificate program that focuses on: Academics, Career Development, Independent Living, and Self-Determination.

This event will feature:

- An information session on the TOPS program
- A panel discussion featuring current TOPS and OSU students
