16,353 individuals with developmental disabilities and their families received services and assistance.

The Nisonger Center has approximately 120 faculty and staff from more than 12 disciplines across 4 OSU colleges.

2,805 students, professionals, and para-professionals participating in 22 UCEDD continuing education programs.

Age and race distribution of individuals receiving services

- 3% 2% 28% 29% 38% 3%
- 0 - 5 years 6 - 17 years 18 - 54 years >54 years Unknown age

- White: 82%
- African American: 14%
- Asian: 3%
- Bi-racial: 1%
- American Indian/Alaska Native: <1%
- Native Hawaiian: < 1%
THE OHIO STATE NISONGER CENTER (FY-2014): “BY-THE-NUMBERS”

LEND Program

IDD

Psychology

33

Long-term trainees from 13 different disciplines.

130

OSU dental students

29

OSU dental hygiene students received specialized training on providing dental care to children/adults with IDD.

Trainees gave at least 28 presentations at professionals meetings and co-authored 25 peer-reviewed journal articles & book chapters.

Faculty produced 55+ peer-reviewed journal articles and book chapters.

37 grants, contracts, and other projects secured total funding of $9,183,883

Nisonger Funding

- 51% Grants
- 39% State
- 6% Contracts
- 3% University
- 1% Donations