THE OHIO STATE
UNIVERSITY
NISONGER CENTER

Nisonger Institute 2023

ABCs of Inclusive Research: Accessible Measures and Better Therapy Guidelines through Community Engagement

Purpose: To provide a framework and strategies for producing inclusive, authentic, accessible, and actionable research on mental health in intellectual disability (ID) through community engaged research.

Virtual Nisonger Institute

Friday, May 19, 2023

1:00pm-4:30pm EST

Agenda

Welcome and Introductions...1:00pm
(Paula Rabidoux)

Nisonger Champion Award...1:05pm
(Paula Rabidoux, Nikole Loew)

Introduction to panels...1:15pm
(Susan Havercamp)

Panel 1:
On the Value of Engaging the Community in ID Research: Strategies and Lessons............... ....1:20pm

Panel Leads: Gloria Krahn and Andrew Buck
Panel Members: Jessica Kramer, Marci Straughter, Richard Chapman

Audience Q&A...2:05pm
(Susan Havercamp & Panelists)

Panel 2:
On the Importance of Self-Report in Health Assessment/Research...............2:20pm

Panel Lead: Katie Walton
Panel Members: Dan Davies, Christine Brown, Andrew Jahoda

Audience Q&A...3:05pm
(Susan Havercamp & Panelists)

Panel 3:
On Meeting the Mental Health Needs of Adults with ID...............................3:20pm

Panel Lead: Andrea Witwer
Panel Members: Yona Lunsky, Andrew Jahoda, Nirbhay Singh,

Audience Q&A...4:05pm
(Andrea Witwer, Ashley Poling, & Panelists)

Conclusions...4:20pm
(Susan Havercamp)

- Review of main points
- How to access materials online

Closing Remarks..4:25pm
(Paula Rabidoux)

- Satisfaction Survey